The whole number of electoral votes for President is 366, of which a majority is 184. The plete from any State, they are yet meagre from peveral States, and from some are little better than conjectural. At the moment of going to press it looks as if the result of the Presidential contest was about as follows:
FOR GREELEY AND BROWN.

Latest Returns from the State. The latest returns from the State recarried New York by nearly 50,000 majority. Kernan runs ahead of his ticket from 10,000 to 15,000. Albany, Erie, and Rensselaer counties cire Grant majorities.

DIISSISSIPPI ..

S TOTAL ..

The returns for Ma or in this city indicate the election of Havemeyer by nearly 6,000 majority. O'Brien runs clear behind Havemeyer and Lawrence, polling a little over half the number of votes which Lawrence polled.

The city apparently elects a full Liberal delecation to Congress. There is some doubt about James W. Covert, Liberal, is elected. The only country Liberals elected are David M. De Witt in the Ulster Detrict, and Ell Perry, in the Al-bany District. The returns from Fernando Wood's District are very meagre, but indicate Wood's election.

The Assembly is undoubtedly Grant. Old Tom Alvoid and De Witt C. LittleJohn are both defeated. This secures the election of a Grant Republican Senator in the place of Roscoe Conk ling. Ex-Governor Morgan will probably stand a fair show for an election in place of Conkling The returns indicate the election of Stepher Pell in the Ninth District of this city. Along B. THE FOTE IN BROOKLYN Liberal Majority of about Eight Thouse ad

Two Liberal Congressmen and Six As-The election in Brooklyn passed off quietly. Business was generally suspended. As a general thing the regular tickets were voted rithout much scratching. The Grantites in many instances resorted to the meanest kind of rickery. On Monday night a large number of lickets for John W. Coe, the Liberal candidate for Supervisor in the Thirteenth Ward, were destroyed. Mr. Coe fortunately discovered the trick in time. In the same ward over 9,000 Dix tickets were surreptitiously placed in the Liberal Republican bags. This fraud was also discovered before the tickets had been distributed. In the Sixteenth Ward three bags of tickets for Aug. Meringer, the Liberal candidate for the Assembly, were openly burned. There was a regular bargain and sale for votes in favor of lakey Worth. In some of the election districts the full registered vote was polled.

Joseph Madden and his son, Joseph, were arrested in the Sixth District of the Second Ward for Illegal voting. It was proved that they lived in Washington, and had no logal residence in the district. In the Third District of the Twentieth Ward John Deering, a non-resident, was arrested while in the act of voting.

In each district the returns show that Kernan runs from 10 to 20 votes behind Greeley. Probably two of the three Liberal Congressmen are elected—Schumaker and Colahan. Six of the tickets were surreptitiously placed in the Lib Assembly candidates are elected, and nine Assembly Cambridge probably seven The Democratic city and county tickets are elected at an estimated majority of from 3,000 to 4,000. Cox for Congressmen at large runs ahead of his ticket.

Stewart L. Woodford is elected to Congress in the Third District over W. W. Goodrich, Liberal. According to the returns received, Kernan falls behind Greeley's vote over 1,640.

The Independent city and county tickets did not poll a very strong vote.

The returns seem to arrive promptly at the Police Central Office, but were retarded in transmission to the reporters by the interference of ward policians, headed by Gen. Woodford, Gen. Tracey, and other Grant Republicans. The operators room was to have been kept clear for the better facility of the telegraph of an office of the bester facility of the telegraph of an Signamund Kaufman, followed by the elerks of the Department, all taking commanding positions in the room. By their orders the Grant politicians were admitted, much to the interruption of the telegraphers and interference of the reporters. The returns were first inspected by them, and then given to the reporters. I low many alterations were made in the figures, is not for the writer to say.
